Applying for Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF)? Now What?

If you're ready to jump start your career, check out the Commerce WorkFirst Program!

Commerce WorkFirst can help you move forward on a solid career path. Program options are available whether you participate part-time or full-time, have worked a lot, or have never worked at all. Here's how we can help:

- Programs combine real work experience with skill development, support services, and case management.
- Program length varies from three to twelve months.
- Through individualized job readiness and job-hunting activities, you'll be able to create a powerful resume and learn how to effectively find the right job.
- We will help find worksites that build on your career interests, skills and abilities.
- Individual coaching, community connections, worksite and peer mentoring opportunities are available.

If interested, ask your Department of Social and Health Services (DSHS) case manager for a Commerce WorkFirst career coach referral.
